

Date: 3.5.2017

Press Release

Valedictory Function of Workshop on Guidance and Counselling organised at AMU Kishanganj Centre

AMU Kishanganj Centre organised the valedictory function of two day Workshop on Guidance and Counselling on May 2, 2017 at Academic Block, AMU Kishanganj Centre. Md Ghyasuddin, District Education Officer, Kishanganj graced the occasion as Chief Guest. In his keynote address, the District Education Officer stressed on the need for proper guidance in today's world in order to achieve a successful career. Urging the students and faculty members to work hard, he stressed on the need of working hard as hard labour has no replacement for success. Speaking on the occasion, Prof Shah Alam, Department of Psychology, Aligarh Muslim University thanked the entire AMU Kishanganj fraternity for holding such a successful programme on Guidance and Counselling that is highly relevant for both students and faculty members. Several participants, that included senior faculty members, principals and teachers from different schools and students also shared their views on the workshop and expressed their satisfaction on the learning from the programme and requested for more of such training programmes. The distribution of certificates to participants was done by the Chief Guest, Prof. Shah Alam (Resource Person) and Professor Raashid Nehal, Director, AMU Kishanganj Centre. Proposing a formal vote of thanks, Professor Raashid Nehal, Director, AMU Kishanganj Centre thanked all the participants for the successful conduct of the workshop and urged the participants to implement the learning from the workshop in their daily life to become successful. He also thanked the resource persons for sharing their valuable inputs and thoughts. The entire programme was compered by Dr Jawed Ahmed.