Ms. Kritika Sharma, IAS (SDO, Jangipur) recently delivered a motivational extension lecture on the topic, “Civil Services: A Rewarding Career Option” in the Department of Business Administration, AMU Murshidabad Centre. The lecture was attended by a large number of MBA students.

Addressing the students, Ms. Sharma said that MBA students always have an advantage over others in Civil Service Examinations as the syllabus of entrance examinations for both of these streams is much similar. She exhorted the students to start preparation for civil service examinations along with their regular studies. She also shared some valuable insights for interview preparation. Drawing parallels with management of organization and an entire district, Ms. Sharma said that in both cases fine managerial skills are required to tackle day-to-day issues.

Dr. Badaruddoza, Director, AMU Murshidabad Centre urged the students to make best possible use of library and seminar facilities of the Centre. He encouraged them to evaluate their own skills and abilities and then to choose their career paths accordingly.

Dr. Nigamananda Biswas, Course Coordinator - MBA, delivered the welcome address. Mr. Mofikul Islam, Assistant Professor presented the introduction of the speaker. Dr. Rashid Usman Ansari, Assistant Professor proposed the Vote of Thanks.
