

Department of Commerce

Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh

As we all know that Central Vigilance Committee (CVC) is the apex integrity institution of the country to promote integrity, transparency and accountability in public life. It organizes the vigilance awareness week every year from 30th October to 4th November, that coincide with the Birth Day of Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel (Iron Man of India) on 31st October. During this week, competitive activities in college and schools are organized on a large scale. Encouraged by the good/active response from the students, the commission decided to focus on above mentioned activities for inculcating greater awareness regarding corruption and anti-corruption measures among the students of colleges, schools, professionals and institutions all over the country.

It has aim of laying stress for creation of awareness on the ill effects of corruption amongst school and college students. Activities to ensure this has been going on over a large period of time in order to inculcate ethical values in the minds of the young generations.

As per the instructions, Central Vigilance Committee, New Delhi, the Department of Commerce, Aligarh Muslim University, has arranged various programmes relating on the theme “My Vision – Corruption Free India”.

Under the ambit of the programme held various activities viz., Lectures, Debates, Elocution, Panel Discussions, Slogans, Poster Competition and other relevant activities took place in the Department of Commerce, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. Integrity pledge to the students and employees were also taken.

In the above mentioned events both students and faculties participated in a well managed and organized manner. The participation was very high, both of students as well as faculties for deliberation to eradicate the corruption from all walks of life.

