Department of Law, AMU Murshidabad Centre Celebrated the Constitution Day

The Department of Law, AMU Murshidabad Centre marked the 68th Constitution Day on November 26, 2017 by organizing a lecture on the topic “Constitutionally inscribed concept of social justice”. The program was organized under the guidance of Dr. Badaruddoza, Director, AMU Murshidabad Centre, Dr. Sk. Tibul Hoque, (Course Coordinator - BALLB), Mr. Akhlaqul Azam (President, Law Society) and Dr. Masood Ahmed (Vice President, Law Society).

The program was inaugurated with the speech of Director In-charge Dr. Nigamananda Biswas. He congratulated the legal fraternity for celebrating this day and instilling the grand philosophy of Constitution in budding lawyers.

Dr. Md. Talib Siddiqui (Assistant Professor) Department of Law talked about the historical development of the Constitution and how far we have moved in implementation of the great objective set by the leaders of the struggle.

Dr Md. Junaid (Assistant Professor) Department of Law discussed the legal and procedural aspects and the intricate problems which one encounter in getting the social justice.

Finally, the Chief Guest of the function, Mr. B. B. Chattoraj (O/C Suti Police Station) gave an enthusiastic lecture on role of lawyers in preserving social justice for all. He highlighted the need of constructive activism in legal profession. He also discussed the operationally opposite agenda in practice and shared his views on how to overcome the current legal and political issues in nation.

Mr. Akhlaqul Azam (Assistant Professor and President Law Society) Department of Law presented the vote of thanks followed by University Tarana and National Anthem.