Request for Media Houses from AMU Murshidabad Centre

Aligarh Muslim University Murshidabad Centre is a Central Government institution established in 2010 having its foundation on secular and modern ethos as enshrined in the Constitution of India. The Centre is a non-political and non-religious institution that is dedicated solely to spread education among the masses, especially minorities.

We would request all the media houses to kindly seek our opinion or suggestions before publishing any article related to the affairs of the Centre. Affirmative reporting about the achievements of the faculty members and students of the Centre will be highly appreciated. Moreover, the Centre should not be linked with any political organization or religious institutions in any manner.

It is needless to mention that the Centre reserves its right to seek legal remedies in case of misreporting about the Centre in both print and electronic media.

Regards

Dr. Syed Atif Jilani
Public Relation Officer
AMU Murshidabad Centre