AMU STUDENTS' UNION (CONDUCT OF ELECTION) REGULATIONS, 2010

[as amended by AMU Students' Union (Conduct of Election) (amendment) Regulations, 2019]

Whereas, Supreme Court of India in University of Kerala V. Council Principals, Colleges' Kerala & Others in SLP (Civil) No. (s) 24995/2004, in its order dated 22 September, 2006 has accepted the recommendations of the report of the Committee constituted by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India in terms of the orders of the Supreme Court of India dated 12 December, 2005 and headed by Mr. J.M. Lyngdoh and whereas the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India had directed acceptance of recommendations of the above committee.

Whereas, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh in compliance with the above directions of the Supreme Court of India issued and implemented AMU Students' Union (Conduct of Election) Regulations, 2010 and two consecutive elections of the Students Election have already been conducted. In the meantime, on 08.12.2011 vide judgment of Supreme Court of India reported [2012(1)ESC 36(SC)], it requires amendments of the existing Regulations of 2010.

Secondly, in the light of paragraph 6.1.5 of Supreme Court's Judgements dated 22.09.2006, the existing regulations required review after two years of its implementations. Keeping in view, geographical distance and separate identity of Women's College, AMU read with paragraph 6.1.7 of Supreme Court's Judgements dated 22.09.2006 it is necessary to have a separate Students' Union of Women's College, AMU for undergraduate women students. The Code of Conduct applicable to AMU Students Union shall also be implemented while conducting the Women's College Students Union, AMU for undergraduate students and both the elections shall be held simultaneously. The President of Women's College Students Union shall be the ex-officio member of Executive Committee of AMU Students' Union.