Orientation Program for MBA 2017-19 Batch Organized at AMU Murshidabad Centre

The Department of Business Administration organized the Orientation Program for the newly inducted MBA students on September 13, 2017. The program started with the recitation of verses from the Holy Quran by MBA final year student Mohammad Islam Ansari.

Dr. Badaruddoza, Director, AMU Murshidabad Centre presented an introduction of Aligarh Muslim University and also familiarized the students with the rich traditions of the University. He talked about the attachment that ‘Aligs’ have for each other, citing various real life examples from his own experiences.

Chief Guest of the Orientation Program, Dr. Sunil Giri, Associate Professor at Management Development Institute Murshidabad (MDI-M) urged the students to make the best possible use of their stay at Murshidabad Centre by sharpening their skills. He urged them to interact with students from various other institutions to develop their own pathways to excellence. Asking them to come up with new ideas, he said that the uniqueness of MBA program is that students from various streams join this course and the combined efforts of all can create miracles.

Dr. Amir Jafar, Associate Professor in the Department talked about various student counseling activities that are undertaken in the Training and Placement Cell of the Department. Dr. Rashid Usman Ansari, Assistant Professor described the history and genesis of the Faulty of Management Studies and Research along with the MBA program in the Centre. Dr. Aminul Haque, Assistant Professor, explained the examination pattern of the MBA program. Mr. Mofikul Islam, Assistant Professor gave an introduction of the computer lab and ICT facilities available at the Centre. Dr. Syed Atif Jilani, Assistant Professor discussed the subjects of the revised MBA syllabus, describing the additional elective papers that are being offered by the Department from the current academic session.

MBA first year student, Md. Saddam Hussian presented his self-composed poem and shared his initial experiences in the Centre. Md Salman Shaukat, MBA final year student mesmerized the audience with a beautiful song. Orusa Kaleem, MBA first year student gave a speech on the contributions of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan.

The Vote of Thanks was proposed by the Course Coordinator of MBA, Dr. Nigamananda Biswas, Associate Professor in the Department. The program concluded with the singing of University Tarana.

Dr. Monirul Islam, Assistant Professor welcomed the guests and conducted the program.