have discretionary appellate jurisdiction over the Grievance cell in all cases in which error on the part of the Grievance cell is charged.

xiii. The decision of the Grievance cell shall stand and shall have full effect until the appeal is heard and decided by the Vice-Chancellor.

xiv. The Vice-Chancellor shall hear appeals of Grievance cell rulings as soon as possible, but not within twenty-four (24) hours after the Grievance cell delivers to the appellant and the Vice-Chancellor a copy of its written opinion in the case. Appeal may be heard prior to this time, but only if the Appellant waives the right to a written opinion and the Vice-chancellor agrees to accept the waiver.

xv. The Vice-Chancellor can issue suitable orders to suspend or halt the operation of the ruling issued by the Grievance cell until the appeals are decided.

xvi. The Vice-Chancellor shall review findings of the Grievance cell when appealed. The Vice-Chancellor may affirm or turn down the decision of the Grievance cell, or modify the sanctions imposed.

12. In the event of the office of any major post of office bearer falling vacant within two months of elections, re-elections should be conducted; otherwise the Vice President may be promoted to the post of President and the executive member, who has secured highest vote in the election to the post of Secretary, as the case may be.

13. No faculty member nor any member of the Administration or an officer of the University shall be permitted to hold any post on the Executive of the AMU Students' Union as well as Women's College Students' Union nor shall be allowed to be a member of AMU Students' Union as well as Women's College Students' Union.

No one except a bonafide regular whole time student of the University shall be permitted to hold any post on the Executive of the AMU Students' Union as well as Women's College Students' Union and allowed to be a member of AMU Students' Union as well as Women's College Students' Union.
