
Kindly find the enclosed herewith a brief report of Vigilance Awareness Week 2018 for your necessary action.

(Mrs Umra Zaheer)
Superintendent
In Connection to the letter 018/VGL/033/395730 dated 24.09.2018 Commission regarding the observance of Vigilance Awareness Week 2018 during the period 29th October 2018 to 03 November 2018 on the theme Eradicate Corruption—Build a New India. The following activities were undertaken in our Abdullah School A.M.U. Aligarh.

1. Integrity pledge was taken by all the employees and students in the morning assembly.
2. Lecture was given by Mrs. Umra Zaheer, Superintendent regarding removal of corruption in the form of dowry, bribery, non-observance of rights and duties and she requested everyone to adopt honest and transparent manners, to abide by rules of our country’s law, to act in public interest and exhibit integrity in personal behaviour and support our country to fight against corruption.
3. Cartoon competition was organized in the school for the students of class III. The Students showed their views and developed really good ideas to be adopted in life to remove corruption of any kind in all walks of life. Around 120 students participated in the competition and the competition was a great success.
4. Slogans were written by the students of class IV. Small children wrote slogans and their innocent and innovative ideas were a charm to listen to.
5. Poster competition was held for the students of class V. The Students participated enthusiastically in the competition as well as enjoyed developing their ideas into drawing form which showed their vision regarding the future of our country.
