OBSERVANCE OF TWO MINUTES SILENCE ON MARTYRS' DAY January 30, 2019
at 11.00 a.m.

The Martyrs' Day will be observed in the University on Wednesday, the 30th January, 2019 with great solemnity it deserves and with active participation of students in order to ensure greater awareness of importance of this occasion among the students in the University, and to instill in them a sense of National Integration and commitment to common goals and ideas.

As in the previous years, silence for 02 minutes will be observed on Wednesday, the 30th January, 2019 to pay homage to the Martyrs who gave their lives in the struggle for India's freedom. The University siren will sound a few seconds before 11.00 a.m. to indicate the commencement of period of silence, during which all work shall remain suspended and every one in the University shall stand in silence until the siren is sounded again at 11.02 a.m.

Besides observing two minutes silence at 11.00 a.m., speeches and talks connected with the significance of the Day, particularly mentioning the role of freedom fighters in freedom struggle of the Nation, may be arranged by each Principal of Schools in the morning assemblies. Cultural programmes like plays/dramas, exhibitions and other cultural activities with the basic theme of National Freedom Movement, film shows on Freedom Movement and National Integration and on the lives of important freedom fighters, may also be arranged by the Coordinator, Cultural Education Centre.

All Chairmen of the Departments of studies, Heads of the Institutions/Offices and Principals of Colleges and University Schools are requested to bring the above to the notice of Staff and students to observe two minutes silence in the manner as indicated above in order to pay respect to Martyrs of India's Freedom.
