AMU Centre Jangipur celebrated the 70th Republic Day with fervor and joy. Dr. Amir Jafar, Director-in-Charge of the Centre hosted the tricolor in presence of a large number of faculty members, non-teaching staff and students. He congratulated the entire AMU Jangipur Centre fraternity on the occasion of the birth of India as a Republic. Addressing the gathering he said that we all should adhere to the principles of our constitution. He further said that the framers of our constitution had toiled hard to build a secular democratic nation and it is now our prime duty to lead our country into this direction.

Dr. Jafar further elaborated that Aligarh Muslim University is spreading knowledge and education for more than a century now without any kind of discrimination. He said, “The doors of Jangipur Centre are open for students from all castes, creed and religion. We are here in this remote part of India to eradicate illiteracy and bring about development.”

Dr. Md Talib Siddiqui, Provost and Course Coordinator, BA. LLB. addressed the gathering on this occasion. He said that it is the responsibility of each and every Indian to uphold the values of Indian Constitution.

Mr. Rama Shankar Yadav, BALLB student also expressed his views on the Republic Day.

The flag hoisting was followed by singing of national anthem followed with distribution of sweets.
