ALIGARH MUSLIM UNIVERSITY, (A.M.U)

Aligarh Muslim University is situated at Aligarh, 130 Kms. from the capital of India . After the first freedom struggle of 1857, Sir Syed Ahmad Khan (1817-1898) of Delhi was actively engaged for the recovery of the wound-stricken nation and found education as the most effective measure for the badly affected Muslim Community.

Aligarh Muslim University is not only an educational Institution in a general sense but it is also a movement for formation of good and healthy future of all Indians particularly of the Muslim community that was more needy and deserving due to social, political, Economic, cultural and educational degradation in comparison to others. Firstly Muslim Anglo Oriental College was founded in 1875 that took the shape of University in 1920.

Now A.M.U. having more than one hundred ten (110) departments besides eighteen halls of residence and three reputed centres for education (Malapuram in Kerala, Kishanganj in Bihar and Murshidabad in West Bangal) had gained its rank as one of the topmost Indian Universities, according to Times Higher Education World University Rankings.

Faculty of Theology :

Faculty of Theology comprising the departments of Sunni and Shia is one of the oldest faculties of A.M.U. Sir Syed Ahmad Khan, the founder of A.M.U. invited prominent Sunni and Shia Scholars to head it. Maulana Abdullah Ansari, the son in law of Maulana Qasim Nanotvi, the founder of Darul Uloom Deoband, was appointed as first Nazim-e-Diniyat. It took form of a faculty in 1960 having two departments: Shia and Sunni Theology. It is mentionable that these two Departments being established under one roof exhibited the unprecedented unity and became never prey to mutual disintegration and conflict since its very inception.

Department of Sunni Theology:

Department of Sunni Theology is one of those Departments which have been enriched through top-ranking and world-famed teachers. Abdullah Ansari, Professor Saeed Ahmad Akbarabadi, Professor Maulana Mohammad Taqi Ameen, Professor Fazlur Rahman Gunnori, Prof. Raufa Iqbal, Professor Zainus Sajideen Siddiqui are the ex-faculties whose creative and valuable writings on different issues of theological stream are landmark, benefitting to mankind in general and intellectuals in particular. More and less one hundred (100) Books and Six hundred (600) research papers have been authored by existing faculties of the Department on the Quran, Hadith and jurisprudence, resolving the contemporary issues of the world. At present, three Professors, two Associate Professors and six Assistant Professors are imparting knowledge to the hundred (100) students of B.A. and M.A. in Theology. Near about seventy (70) Research Scholars are busy in their research work. Whereas more than two thousand students of B.A. B.Sc and B.Com Ist year opting Theology as their compulsory subject are getting the education of Sunni Theology.

About the International Seminar:

Importance of Media has been an established fact in all ages. Media whether it may be newspapers, radio, television or may be internet; it has key-role to change the mind and life-style of society, nation, country and the world as a whole. What is the main purpose of media and what methodology should be opted; acquaintance with the details are compulsory for healthy circumstances in a society.

It is honour to the Department of Sunni Theology of Aligarh Muslim University that it has decided to organize an International Seminar on Media and Islam on 26th of March, 2019.
