The Department of Business Administration, AMU Centre Jangipur, Murshidabad organized Induction Programme: “Deeksharambh - Student Induction Programme” for the MBA 1st Year students from 16th September to 21st September 2019.

The induction program was held in different session all along the week. The main purpose to conduct the induction program was to get the fresher students acquainted with different facilities available at the Centre as well as to familiarize them with the course curriculum of MBA.

The First day started with an interactive session between the faculty members and first year students of MBA. While interacting with the students, Dr. Nigamananda Biswas, Associate Professor apprised the student by giving advice on how to ensure their success and encouraged them to utilize their full potential. Mr. Mofikul Islam, Assistant Professor motivated the students to take important life decisions in a calculated manner. Mr. Aminul Haque, Assistant Professor talked about the aspects that help an individual to become a successful management professional. Dr. Syed Atif Jilani, Assistant Professor discussed various aspects of career orientation for student that will help in their personality development. Dr. Md Sarwar Alam, Assistant Professor guided the students to be punctual and disciplined such that they get benefitted in the long run. The session was conducted by Dr. Rashid Usman Ansari, Assistant Professor.

On the Second day, Dr. Rashid Usman Ansari, Acting Course Coordinator MBA (Unit) delineated on the overall structure and curriculum of MBA along the career options available to the students after MBA. While interacting with the students, he described the history and genesis of the Faulty of Management Studies and Research as well as that of the MBA program in the Centre.

The Third day session involved interaction with Dr. Amir Jafar, Director-in-Charge of the Center. Dr. Jafar emphasized on the need for all-round development of management students. He also talked about maintaining discipline at the campus and apprised the students about the facilities available for them at the Centre. Exhorting them to come up with new ideas, he said that the uniqueness of MBA program is that students from various streams join this course and the combined efforts of all can create miracles.

On the Fourth day, Dr. Sunil Giri, Associate Professor at Management Development Institute, Murshidabad (MDI-M) gave a talk on the importance of human values in the life a manager. In his interactive session, he urged students to make the best possible use of their stay at Murshidabad Centre by sharpening their skills. He advised them to interact with students from various other institutions to develop their own pathways to excellence.

The Fifth day session involved interaction with administrative post holders of the campus. During the interaction, Dr. Md. Junaid, Deputy Proctor discussed the Code of Conduct and urged the students to maintain the discipline of the campus. Mr. Mohammed Umair, Assistant Proctor also discussed the disciplinary actions and measure according to the code of conduct of the University. Mr. Aminul Haque, Assistant DSW talked about various student counseling activities that are undertaken by the DSW Office as well as he discussed the various scholarship program available for the students. The program was conducted by Dr. Rashid Usman Ansari.

The keynote speaker of the sixth and last day of Induction Program was Mr. Om Prakash, Manager HR, at NTPC, Farakka. He gave a talk on ‘Human Resource Practices for Management Students’. He urged the students to develop an understanding about their own personality type and to identify the areas they should work upon. This session was conducted by Dr. Md Sarwar Alam.

“Deeksharambh - Student Induction Programme” of MBA students ended with active participation from all the faculty members and the students.