The Department of Education, AMU Centre Jangipur, Murshidabad organised the Induction Programme for the newly admitted students. The programme was held to instil the sense of devotion, respect and duty towards the institution, faculty members and B.Ed. programme. It is also about introspection, acknowledgement and responsibility that would facilitate healing and restitution, for its newly admitted B.Ed. students of the session 2019-21. It was a six days event and the programme commenced on 16 September 2019 and continued till 21 September 2019 in the Academic Block.

On the first day, the programme focused on the interaction between the students and teachers and the role that a teacher plays in the career development of students. It was chaired by the Course Coordinator B. Ed. (Unit), Mr. Tasneem Ahmed, in which all other faculty members actively participated and emphasised the need for good teachers and quality education in the present scenario.

On the second day, Dr. Amir Jafar, Director-in-Charge of the Centre interacted with the new students. During the event, Dr. Jafar highlighted the genesis of this prestigious institution and its purpose of imparting education to the educationally deprived sections of the society. He also shared his personal experiences of life and motivated the students to become sensitive and contributing citizen at all stages of life.

The third day was dedicated to make the students understand the course curriculum and the legacy of the department. Dr. Rasheed Ahmed and Dr. Fahimuddin, Assistant Professors in the Department of Education, addressed the students and motivated them with their inspiring experiences. Moreover, the Course Coordinator, Mr. Tasneem Ahmed highlighted the history of Murshidabad District and its paramount significance.

The fourth day saw the Administrative Team of the Centre interacting with the students. They acquainted the students with the general code of conduct, rules and regulations of the Centre. It was marked by the presence of the Provost, Dr. Rashid Usmani Ansari, who talked about hostel related issues. Deputy Proctor, Dr. Md. Junaid and Assistant Proctor, Mr. Mohammad Umail spoke on the observation of the university rules and regulations by the students. Warden (Boys), Dr. Masood Ahmad and Assistant DSW, Mr. Aminul Haque was also present and interacted with the students.

The events of 20th September involved the more active participation of the students as they put forth their opinions and expectations. First of all, students presented their self-introduction and then expressed their concerns and expectations with B. Ed. program. They appreciated the campus and the efforts made by the faculty members in teaching and guiding them.

In the Valedictory Function of the Deeksharambh Programme, Mr. Om Prakash, Manager Human Resource (Raj Bhasha), NTPC, Farakka was the Chief Guest. He emphasised on the significance of the role of language in the professional life of teachers and students. He further highlighted the paramount importance of Hindi and other literature so that potential teachers make the best use of their potential so as to achieve success.

The programme was well received by both the faculty members and the students who worked together to make it a grand success.
