Report on “Deeksharambh – Student Induction Programme”
Department of Law
Aligarh Muslim University Centre Jangipur, Murshidabad, West Bengal
16th September - 21st September 2019

A week long Induction Programme was conducted in the Department of Law, AMU Centre Jangipur, Murshidabad under the guidance of Dr. Amir Jafar, Director-in-Charge of the Centre. The inaugural programme was conducted on 16th September 2019 at 4:00 pm in LT-2 of the Academic Block. In this session, Dr. Mohd. Arif, Course Coordinator B.A.LL.B. (Unit), familiarized the first year students with “Deeksharambh”, the UGC initiative for inducting fresh students. Dr. Arif highlighted the various events of the week long programme and presented a brief introduction of all the students.

During the Director’s Interaction Programme on the same day, Dr. Amir Jafar, highlighted the importance of induction programme for the students as it will help them in getting adjusted in the new academic atmosphere. He also talked about the ethos and culture of Aligarh Muslim University which would definitely help them in building bonds with other students and faculty members.

On 17th September, a Student-Teachers Interaction Programme was conducted in which faculty members made a very fruitful interaction with the new comers. Faculty members introduced the students about their areas of specialization and shared their experiences with the students. In this session faculty members also shared various methods of studying and memorising different topics easily with the students.

On 18th September, an interactive session was arranged with the Administrative Post Holders of the Centre. In this session, Dr. Rashid Usman Ansari, Provost and Dr. Masood Ahmad, Warden discussed about the residential life at AMU Centre. Dr. Md. Junaid, Deputy Proctor and Mr. Mohammad Umair, Assistant Proctor communicated the provisions of University Code of Conduct and asked the students to abide them in order to maintain Law and Order in the University. Thereafter, Dr. Aminul Haque, Assistant DSW promised all possible help for the welfare of students in order to unlock their full potential.
On 19th September, Dr. Mohd. Arif, Course Coordinator, B.A.LL.B. (Unit) discussed about the course, academic ordinances and examination system of this course. He also pointed out that the Department of Law, Aligarh Muslim University is one of the oldest Law departments in India. The teaching of Law in AMU was introduced in the year 1883. Since then Faculty of Law, AMU has produced innumerable legal icons who have rendered their services to many prestigious offices in India and abroad. He also told that our faculty in Murshidabad is also marching towards the same way as the parent organization and the alumnus from here are also serving in both, at the Bench and the Bar. Further, the programme was carried forward by Dr. Md. Junaid, Assistant Professor, Department of Law. He shared a brief history of establishment of the Centre in Murshidabad.

On 20th September, Assistant Professors of the Department, Dr. Md Talib Siddiqui, Ms. Shaila Mehmood and Mr. Asif addressed the students about the expectations from students, social relevance and human values. They also pointed out the struggles and hard work in the establishment of this institution and asked the students to always work in constructive manner in order to take the institution to new heights.

On 21st September, the Valedictory Function of this week long Induction Programme was held with Mr. Pradip Banerjee, Additional District and Special Judge gracing the function as the Chief Guest. Mr. Banerjee gave a motivational lecture to the young law learners on choosing their further profession wisely. In an interactive session with Law First year students he also shared his own experiences in the legal arena to boost up the interest of students in their course of study.

In his welcome address, Dr. Amir Jafar, Director-in-Charge of the Centre welcomed the Chief Guest and shared with students different kinds of career opportunities which study of law offers. He suggested the students to achieve clarity in their studies and always remain updated by reading newspaper and books on daily basis. At last, the programme concluded with the Vote of Thanks by Dr. Md. Junaid. He thanked the Chief Guest, Mr. Pradip Banerjee, Director-in-Charge, Faculty members, administrative staff, students and all those who cooperated and made the programme a successful and fruitful event.