Press Release
AMU Kishanganj Centre observed the martyr's day of Mahatma Gandhi & other freedom fighters of India on 30th January, 2020 at Academic Block, AMU Kishanganj Centre. The programme was conducted by Ms. Farah Zahidi, Faculty, Department of Business Administration, AMU Kishanganj Centre. The topic of discussion was “Gandhian Ideology of non-violence in contemporary politics.”
The programme started with the observance of two minutes silence in the honor of Mahatma Gandhi. A short film depicting the life and teachings of Gandhi Ji was also shown.
The inaugural speech was given by Dr. Hassan Imam, Director, AMU Kishanganj Centre focusing on the contribution of Mahatma Gandhi in the freedom movement of India and his efforts towards mobilization of the masses to raise their voices against the British. He started his speech quoting a famous couplet.

Shaheedon ki Mazaaron pe Lagenge har baras mele
Watan pe marne walon ka Yahi baqi Nishan Hoga

In his keynote speech Dr. Imam further added that being Gandhi was not so easy. Even though Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi was born in Porbandar, Gujarat but he chose the Land of Champaran, Bihar as his Karmbhoomi. He fought for the cause of farmers relentlessly and his contribution towards removal of untouchability is unparalleled. He propagated Ahimsa, non-violence, Satyagrah and made them his weapon for fighting against the barbaric colonial rule.

Mr. Aquarab Ullah Khan, Assistant Proctor AMU Kishanganj Centre also spoke about Gandhian philosophy and its relevance in present scenario of the country. Mr. Ahmad Umair Hashmi, student of MBA final year proposed the vote of thanks. All the faculty members, non-teaching staff, students and local people were present on the occasion.
