College became Aligarh Muslim University in 1920. The main campus of AMU is located in the city of Aligarh in Western Uttar Pradesh in North India. There are three fully functioning off-campus centers located in the cities of Malappuram (Kerala), Murshidabad (West Bengal) and Kishanganj (Bihar). The university campus occupies an area of over 468 hectares (1,155 acres). It has total academic staff strength of 2,500 with around 30,000 students. A special feature of the University is its residential character with most of the staff and students residing in the campus. Aligarh Muslim University draws students from all corners of the country as well as foreign countries, especially Africa, West Asia and Southeast Asia. In some courses, seats are reserved for students from SAARC and Commonwealth Countries. AMU is truly representative of the country's multi-religious, multi-racial and multi-lingual character. In 2017, the University ranked 1st in the top 10 higher education institutions in India by Times Higher Education World University Rankings.

The Department of Modern Indian Languages

The Department of Modern Indian languages is a multi-lingual department consisting of Seven Indian languages i.e.Bengali, Kashmiri, Malayalam, Marathi, Punjabi, Tamil and Telugu. Article 351 of our constitution envisages the development of national languages to promote the composite culture of our country. With the noble and specific idea of strengthening National Integration through the study of these languages and literatures. Teaching of regional languages was introduced at Aligarh Muslim University in the year 1959 as part of the Department of Hindi. Gradually teaching of Telugu, Malayalam, Tamil, and Bengali was started at various levels such as Certificate and Diploma courses, Subsidiary subjects at B.A (Hons) and MA. Later Marathi, Punjabi and Kashmiri languages are introduced.

Marathi Section, D/o Modern Indian Languages

Marathi Language & Literature was introduced at AMU in 1985. Marathi Section of the department of Modern Indian Languages is running 08 Courses in Marathi, i.e. B.A Subsidiary, M.A Open Elective, B.A Open Elective, Compulsory NMT, Certificate/Diploma of proficiency, Inter Translation Course and Ph.D. in Marathi. A large number of students are enrolled in the Marathi courses. This section has organized National Seminars, 1 National Symposium in the near past. It has organized cultural programs, discussions, debates and Lecture Series for the development of Marathi Languages and Literature.
