Press Release: 25/02/2020 Interdisciplinary Department of Remote Sensing & GIS Applications

On the occasion of "Matribhasha Diwas" (Mother Language Day) Interdisciplinary Department of Remote Sensing & GIS applications has organized an essay writing competition on 24th Feb 2020. In this regard MSc students actively participated in the event and wrote an Essay in three different languages viz; English, Hindi and Urdu on the topic "Diversity of Indian Languages". Later students essay copies were evaluated and top three students were selected for appreciation for putting their efforts in prominence of the Indian language diversity, which is one of the symbols of peace and harmony. Prof. Qazi Mazhar Ali, Dean, F/o Science and Chairman of the Interdisciplinary Department of Remote Sensing & GIS Applications praised the writing skills and deliberation on diversity of languages written by the students in the essay competition.
