Women’s Polytechnic organized Orientation Programme for new comers Diploma and Advance Diploma students.

Dr. Jahangir Alam, Mrs. Iffat Ara Bano, Dr. Sheeba Manzoor, Section Incharges of the department introduced faculty members to newly admitted students and highlighted the landmarks and state of the art facilities available in their respective sections.

Dr. Salma Shaheen, Principal Women’s Polytechnic welcomed the guests and congratulated the students on being part of a world class university. She also emphasized students to make effective and efficient use of well equipped laboratories and library facilities available in department to achieve their goals.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Tariq Ahmed as Course Structure Incharge said that the students will today embark their academic journey that will define their career in the years ahead. While giving power point presentation he draws special attention to the students about some facts and figures of Aligarh Muslim University and Women’s Polytechnic. He also added students should make use of facilities such as internet services, library, health service, sports, student clubs, training and placement, scholarships, classrooms, laboratories and other infrastructure with responsibility. He also rendered brief overview on the course structure.

While giving power point Mr. Misbahurrahman Siddiqui as Assistant Chief Tabulator highlighted important points of evaluation criteria that have to be followed during the academic programme. He also apprised students with academic ordinances.

Prof. Mohd. Saghir Khan, Deputy Dean Students Welfare delivered the detailed description of DSW office functioning and informed students that more than 100 scholarships are available for the students. He also mentioned to new comers that they have joined center of excellence and on being the part of Women’s Polytechnic your future is in safe hands.

Prof. Mohd. Shamim, Deputy Proctor threw light on University Rules and Regulations and explained what are the do’s and don’t’s for the students to have safe and secure campus. In addition he requested students to carry original valid proof of identity to avoid any inconvenience in the campus or outside the campus.

Dr. Sheeba Kamal as Poly Society Incharge conducted the orientation programme.
Promotion Criteria:

When 1st Semester to 2nd Semester, the students will be promoted if they have fulfilled the attendance requirement as 75% of the course of 2nd semester; attendance of 75% of the course of 2nd semester, not in any case, a student will be promoted if he fails any one subject in 2nd semester.

A student will be promoted if he secures a minimum of 30% in the subject of 2nd semester, and if the student fails in any one subject in the 2nd semester, he will be promoted on the condition that he can secure a minimum of 75% in the subject of the 2nd semester.

If a student fails in any one subject in 2nd semester and does not secure a minimum of 75% in the subject of 2nd semester, he will be promoted only if he secures a minimum of 50% on the aggregate of the 2nd semester and fulfills the attendance requirement as 75% of the course of 2nd semester.