With reference to your letter D. No. 90/Gen, dated 19.5.2018, I am sending the following pledge report on Anti-Terrorism Day on 21.5.2018.

The Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, J.N. Medical College, A.M.U., Aligarh today observed a Pledge Ceremony on Anti-Terrorism Day. Prof. Naiyer Asif, Chairperson, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery pledged with teaching and non-teaching staff, Postgraduate students and Interns at the Seminar Room of the department.

The pledge read, "We the people of India, having abiding faith in our country's tradition of non-violence and tolerance, hereby, solemnly affirm to oppose with our strength, all forms of terrorism and violence. We pledge to uphold and promote peace, social harmony and understanding among all fellow human beings and fight the forces of disruption threatening human lives and values".

It may be noted that the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India has directed all the Universities and government bodies to observe pledge ceremony on Anti-Terrorism Day on 21.5.2018. However, it allowed the ceremony to be held on 21.5.2018.

Prof. Abdul Qayyum Khan, Dr. Sohail Ahmad, Dr. Yasir Salam Siddiqui, Dr. M. Faizan were prominent amongst them who attended the ceremony.

'Swachhta Pakhwada' observed in the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery (Swachhta Hi Seva)

The teachers, students and staff of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery (Faculty of Medicine) observed 'Swachhta Pakhwada' with the cleaning of the department and the adjoining areas. They took a pledge to keep their surroundings clean and to raise awareness on cleanliness across the nation. On this occasion a tree plantation drive was also conducted.

Prof Naiyer Asif (Chairperson, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery) said that it is necessary to keep our surroundings clean as staying hygienic and ridding our surroundings of germs is good for our health. He also said that working to keep things clean and neat brings joy and a sense of satisfaction. Cleanliness is like a good habit which not only benefits a person, but; it benefits the family, society and country and thus whole planet. Prof. M.K.A. Sherwani, Prof. Mazhar Abbas, Prof. Abdul Qayyum Khan, Dr. Latif Zafar Jilani and other faculty members were present on the occasion.
