Department Requirement for starting the Masters program in International Politics (with specialization in Strategy, Security and Peace)

As per the UGC directives generally for starting a new department, we need the following teaching faculty:

One (1) Professor

Two (2) Associate Professors

Four (4) Assistant Professors

And commensurate with the proper functioning of the same we also need corresponding technical support staff. Accordingly, the recently established department of security and strategic studies needs the same.
Tentative Syllabi for Masters Programme

MA in International Politics (with specialization in Strategy, Security and Peace)

Outline of Papers

Core Papers

1st Semester

1. Theories and Concepts in International Relations
2. Historical development of International Relations
3. International Organization
4. International Law
5. Defence and Strategy in the Contemporary Order

2nd Semester

1. Problems and Issues in International Relations
2. National Interest and International Relations
3. International Political Economy and Economic World Order
4. Political Geography
5. India and the World Affairs

3rd Semester

1. Introduction to Peace and Conflict Resolution
2. Peace and War in the Nuclear age
3. Globalization and Human Rights
4. Regional Integration in Contemporary World: Issues and challenges
5. Comparative Politics

4th Semester

1. Introduction to Research Methods in International Relations
2. UN PKO and shared responsibility to Global Peace
3. Popular Culture and International Politics
4. Securitization in the 21st Century
5. Culture, Norms and Identity in World Politics
Optional Papers for MA Program

3rd semester

1. Great Powers in the International System and World Order
2. The Politics of East Asia: Major stakes and stakeholders
3. The Politics of South Asia: Major stakes and stakeholders
4. The Politics of West Asia: Major stakes and stakeholders
5. The Politics of Latin America: Major stakes and stakeholders

4th semester

1. India’s role in Peace studies
2. Conflict Resolution and Africa: Issues and challenges
3. Gender and International Relations
4. Europe in World Affairs
5. Populism and Democracy in International Politics