

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
ALIGARH MUSLIM UNIVERSITY, ALIGARH

ED-806

D.T. ( I Semester)

(2 Credits)

Theory: 38

Sessional: 12

EDUCATIONAL HANDWORK

Objectives : After completing the course students will be able to :

- Acquire creative skills
- Prepare for new creative vocational world.
- Develop aesthetic sense
- Learn the knowledge of various methods of preparing low-cost teaching material with the help of paper and card-board.
- Apply creative skills in their day to day life.

Unit – I:

1. Meaning and Importance of educational handwork.
2. Objectives of teaching handwork.
3. Integrating paper and card board work with other curriculum subjects.
4. Tools used for handwork.

Unit – II:

1. Class-room decoration.
2. Interior decoration.
3. Preparation of teaching-aids with the help of paper and card board.
4. Flowers and animal figures with the help of paper.

Unit – III:

1. Collage making (utilizing waste material and paper tearing).
2. Preparation of card board models – Pen stand, and folder, magazine holder.
3. Masks (using paper plates and paper bags).
4. Doll making and soft toys making.

Books Recommended :

- Aniello, R.S. and other (1966), what can I do for an Art Lesson, Parker Publishing Comp. Inc.
- Barnes, R. (1996), Teaching Art to young children, School of Education, University of East Anglia.
- Child craft, make & do, vol. 14, Book House, 77 Mount Ephraim, Funbridge well.
- Jeswani, K.K. (1967), 'ART IN EDUCATION', Atma Ram & Sons, Lucknow.
- Paper Toy making, Campbell M.M. Pub. London , Sir Isaac Pitman & Sons Ltd., 1936.
- Sharma, N.K. (2004), Drawing & Painting, Goyal Prakashan, Meerut.
- Verma, K. (2002), Interior Decoration, Ranjna Prakashan, Agra.

