

AMU Murshidabad Centre participates in ‘The 36th Murshidabad Book Fair at Behrampore

AMU Murshidabad Centre participated in ‘The 36th Murshidabad Book Fair’ which is being organized in Behrampore town of Murshidabad District from February 08-15, 2017. The Centre is being supported by AMU Old Boys Association and well-wishers of AMU in this initiative. The vision and mission of AMU founder Sir Syed Ahmad Khan is being conveyed to the visitors through powerpoint presentations and videos during the entire duration of the fair. The Centre has also established a help-desk to inform and assist students in applying for various courses at AMU. This effort is being highly praised by the people visiting the Fair.

Students of the Centre participated in the cultural event organized at the central stage of the Fair, showcasing the traditions of AMU. The singing of AMU tarana by the students captivated and enthralled the audience and was highly applauded.

Dr. Badaruddoza, Director AMU Murshidabad Centre expressed pleasure and satisfaction over the participation in the Fair. He congratulated the team of students and teachers who took this initiative and added that it will help in dispelling confusion regarding the Centre in the region.
