

shortstories

AMU PVC visits K'ganj centre

KISHANGANJ: Aligarh Muslim University (AMU) pro-vice chancellor (PVC) Syed Ahmad Ali on Monday said all efforts were being made to get funds released for the construction of the institute's centre here. Speaking to reporters here during his three-day visit to Kishanganj between December 10 and December 12, Ali hoped that the construction work of the AMU centre here would start soon.