

Funds for devpt of AMU centre soon

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Patna: Aligarh Muslim University (AMU) pro-vice-chancellor Syed Ahmad Ali on Tuesday said necessary funds for the development of the AMU centre at Kishanganj will soon be released by the Union Government.

Addressing a function at Kishanganj, Ali said, "Students and faculty members engaged in academic pursuits at the centre will soon get better facilities."

Accompanied by AMU

alumni affairs committee chairman Suhail Sabir and pro-VC also visited the permanent 224-acre site of the AMU centre at Chak Kishanganj and assessed the quantum of damages caused to the boundary wall by the recent floods.

State minority welfare minister Abdul Ghafoor, human chain president Aslam Alig, AMU alumni forum president Syed Mohammad Qutubbur Rahman, Katihar Medical College chairman Ashfaq Karim also attended the function.