Department of Law, AMU Murshidabad Centre Organizes “Legal Aid & Literacy Camp – 2016”

“Justice should be available to every individual with ease and it should not be denied merely because of economic and social inequalities”, said Dr. Badaruddoza, Director, AMU Murshidabad Centre. He was addressing the Legal Aid & Literacy Camp organized by Department of Law, AMU Murshidabad Centre on 29th of March, 2016 at village Momintola, Murshidabad. The Camp was organized to increase the awareness among general masses in relation to prevailing social evils and counsel the villagers in their legal problems. The final year students of Department of Law presented various plays on different social and legal issues including the ones like Child Marriage, Child Education and Drug Addiction, which were highly applauded.

The students also interacted with the villagers who turned up with their legal problems and rendered them with best possible advices emphasizing on alternate methods of dispute resolution. The huge turnaround of the villagers was very motivating.

In his inaugural address Dr. Mohd. Arif, Course Co-ordinator, Department of Law emphasized on realizing the dreams of the great constitution makers and to provide all necessary efforts required for the sake of justice as enshrined in Article 39-A of the Indian Constitution. The concluding remarks were given by Dr. Md. Junaid who spoke on the working of the Legal Aid Clinic at the Centre.

The Centre strongly feels that organizing such camps in the remote border areas will yield good results and many such camps will also be organized in the near future with the sole aim of awareness of the masses. On the occasion the faculty members of the Department of Law, Dr. Tibul Hoque, Dr. Md. Talib Siddiqui, Mr. Asif, Ms. Shaila Mahmood, Mr. Akhlaqul Azam, Dr. Shakil Ahmad, Dr. Md. Rakibul Islam, Mr. Ahmar Afaq and Ms. Shaheen Parveen were also present.
