Mr. Mohd. Imran Idrisi, BALLB III year student of AMU Murshidabad Centre was awarded a memento for being the ‘Youngest Parliamentarian’ at My Parliament. My Parliament is an effort to bridge the gap between policy makers of today with those of tomorrow. Mr. Imran participated in various training sessions through study material and webinars on Union Budget 2016-17. In the simulation scenario of Indian Parliament, he represented the Rural Development Minister of the Ministry of Rural Development, devising policies and preparing plans for the Ministry.

Mr. Imran got a special mention by participating in the LexQuest 1st National Article Writing Competition - 2015. His article on “Bhagavad Gita as an Indian National Scripture” highlighted the controversy triggered by the statement of Union Minister, Sushma Swaraj, favouring the status of ‘Rashtriya Granth’ to Bhagavad Gita. Criticizing her intent, he stated in his article that taking oath under Indian Constitution, the Minister is duty bound to treat sacred books of all Indians on equal footing. Mr. Imran’s article titled: “NJAC Act -2014” has also been published in a monthly law magazine - LawZ (Vol. 15, No. 09, Issue 171).
