67th Republic Day Celebrated at AMU Murshidabad Centre

Aligarh Muslim University Murshidabad Centre celebrated the 67th Republic Day on 26th January, 2016 in the Campus. The Director, Dr Badaruddoza, hoisted the national tricolor, followed by singing of the national anthem. Dr. Badaruddoza, while paying rich tributes to the sacrifices of the freedom fighters of India, acknowledged the enormous contributions of Dr. Bheemrao Ambedkar and the members of Constituent Assembly in building and shaping Modern India. He stressed that it is because of the sacrifices of these great men that we today celebrate and enjoy Republic Day with pride and dignity.

Sweets were distributed among staff members, students and children after the ceremony. The Director, along with teaching and non-teaching staff, made a trip of the entire campus, spread on both sides of river Bhagirathi. Tree saplings were planted in the campus with active participation of teaching, non-teaching staff and students.

A friendly cricket match was organized between teaching and non-teaching staff members, inaugurated by the Director. The team of non-teaching staff won the match under the captaincy of Assistant Registrar, Mr. Abdul Hamid. The teaching team played under the captaincy of Assistant Professor, Mr. Rakibul Islam. A Luncheon, funded by teaching community, was also held on this occasion with the support of the Director.

The 67th Republic Day was, for the first time, celebrated at AMU Murshidabad Centre in such a exceptional manner, making it a memorable event for all. The programs were aimed at enhancing and developing healthy team spirit and friendliness among the staff members, who are from different parts of India and still engender a strong unity.
