National Constitution Day Celebrated at AMU Murshidabad Centre

The students and faculty members of the Department of Law celebrated the first Constitution Day on November 26, 2015 with great enthusiasm. The Course Coordinator of BALLB, Dr. Md. Junaid along with other faculty members were present along with a large number of students.

The program started with the recitation of a few verses of Holy Quran by Mr. Mohammad Ali Khan.

In his address, Dr. Junaid, highlighted the importance of rights and duties in the life of an ordinary citizen as enshrined in the Constitution of India. He said that for the betterment of people, it is very necessary that we should not only concern about the rights but should also understand our duties towards the society at large.

The importance of various constitutional provisions were discussed by all the teachers of the Department. Course Coordinators of MBA, Dr. Rashid Usman Ansari and B. Ed. Mr. Rasheed Ahmad also addressed the gathering.

Alumnus of the Department, Mr. Alfaiz Firdous, shared his experiences from his student life and motivated the Law students to focus on studies. The vote of thanks was proposed by the Mr. Waseem Akram Pasha, a student of BALLB final year.
