National Education Day Celebrated in the Department of Education

The Department of Education, AMU Murshidabad Centre celebrated the National Education Day from 10-12 November, 2015 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Islamic scholar, political leader and the first Education Minister of free India - Maulana Abul Kalam Azad.

Mr. Rasheed Ahmad, Course Coordinator reported that this year's theme of National Education Day celebration was “Educational Awareness Campaign”. As part of celebrations, the local people, living in nearby three villages of AMU Centre, were acquainted with different educational schemes, policies and importance of education. B. Ed. students of the department organized various programs like street play, scripts, placard and poster in collaboration with students of schools such as Holy Faith Academy, Guidance Academy and Momintola Senior Secondary Madrasha. The focal point of these programs was educational awareness and making a positive impact on society.

A rally was organized in the village Basudevpur on 10th November by the B. Ed. students in which children of local schools actively participated. The students also performed a street play titled ‘Sab Padhen Sab Badhen’ (Let's all study, let's go forward) at various places in the village. The play ends with a song which teaches children to learn English alphabets in an easy and interesting manner.

B. Ed. students, Ms. Mehjabin Tawassum and Mr. Md. Asadullah, were the Cultural Program In-Charges. Mr. Osama Mohd. Shahid, Mr. Sohel Rana and Mr. Gulam Ahmed also contributed in the successful completion of the program. Ms. Darakhshan Nigar, delivered a speech on the importance of education and outcome of education in the present scenario. She related the message given in the street plays and urged people to reduce child labour and encouraged them to send their children to the nearby schools.

In Talai Village, another group of students from the Department participated in the Education Awareness Campaign on 10th November. A rally was organized in this highly uneducated village in collaboration with the students of Guidance Academy. The students carried placards with slogans like “Shikhkhar Aalo Ghore Ghore Jalo” and “Sab pade sab bade”. At the end of the rally, chocolate and elementary books were distributed among the children.

On 12th November, an Educational Awareness Rally was organized by all faculty members, B. Ed. students along with students and teachers of Momintola Senior Secondary Madrasa. B. Ed. Students staged a play and sang motivational Bengali song. School cultural program coordinator, Ms. Nilufa Yeasmin (B. Ed. student) delivered a speech on the importance of girls' education. The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Mohd. Fahimuddin.
